Description of Business

Continental was a reporting issuer listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") under the symbol "CZQ". The Company was amalgamated with Fin Resources Inc., under the laws of the Province of Ontario, Canada by Articles of Amalgamation dated July 7, 1987. Historically Continental's business focus has been in the natural resources industry. Current management is actively seeking new business opportunities. To date, Continental has not earned any revenues from its mineral property interests and is considered to be in the exploration stage.

During the three and nine months ended February 28, 2017, the Company disposed of its interest in the Sweden Uranium Project as disclosed in note 3.

As a result of this disposition the company no longer met the applicable criteria to remain on the TSX exchange. The Company has applied for voluntary delisting of its shares from the TSX and concurrently applied for a listing on the NEX exchange.

Overall Performance

On October 21, 2016, Mr. Grant Sawiak resigned as the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and a director of the Company. The Board of Directors appointed Mr. Norman Brewster, who has been a director of the Company since November 2013, as Interim CEO. Management and directors are currently reviewing opportunities outside the extraction industry that have developed as a result of present market conditions and the Company's strong cash position.

Exploration and Evaluation Assets

VIKEN PROJECT

During the year ended May 31, 2016, the Company impaired the carrying value of the property to $1. During the three and nine months ended February 28, 2017, the Company transferred the 11 mineral claims comprising the Sweden Uranium Project to EU Energy Corp. The terms of the sale agreement provide that Continental be paid a total of $300,000, of which $150,000 was advanced on the date of signing with the remaining $150,000 to be paid on or before March 31, 2017 which was included in the accounts receivable in the unaudited condensed interim consolidated statements of financial position as at February 28, 2017. Additionally Continental is entitled to receive a NSR of 2% which upon a 30 day notice from EU Energy Corp. could be purchased for $600,000. However, if EU Energy Corp. does not commence commercial production from the property within 5 years, the royalty is reduced to 0.5% and can be purchased for $150,000.

During the three and nine months ended February 28, 2017, the Company incurred $2,724 and ($21,498), respectively, (three and nine months ended February 29, 2016 - $14,562 and $183,240, respectively) in exploration expenses in connection with the Sweden Uranium Project. The negative exploration expenses during the three and nine months ended February 28, 2017 was due to a refund received from a vendor for expenses incurred in previous periods.

During the three and nine months ended February 28, 2017, the Company incurred $nil and $3,652, respectively (three and nine months ended February 29, 2016 - $6,789 and $8,172, respectively) in connection with the property.

As of the date of this filing, the Company does not have any off-balance-sheet arrangements that have, or are reasonably likely to have, a current or future effect on the results of operations or financial condition of the Company, including, and without limitation, such considerations as liquidity and capital resources.

Proposed Material Transactions

As of the date of this MD&A, the Company does not have any proposed material transactions to announce.

Environmental Contingency

The Company's historical mining and exploration activities were subject to various government laws and regulations relating to the protection of the environment. These environmental regulations are continually changing and generally becoming more restrictive. As of the date of this MD&A, the Company does not

Disclosure Controls

Disclosure controls and processes have been designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Company is compiled and reported to Company management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Company's CEO and CFO have concluded, based on their evaluation as of February 28, 2017, that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to provide reasonable assurance that material information related to the Company is made known to them by employees and third party consultants working for the Company. There have been no significant changes in the Company's disclosure controls and processes during the nine months ended February 28, 2017.

It should be noted that while the Company's CEO and CFO believe that the Company's disclosure controls and processes will provide a reasonable level of assurance and that they are effective, they do not expect that the disclosure controls and processes will prevent all errors and frauds. A control system, no matter how well conceived or operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that its objectives are met.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting ("ICFR")

Management is responsible for certifying the design of the Company's ICFR as required by National Instrument 52-109 – "Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings". ICFR is intended to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS. ICFR should include those policies and procedures that establish the following:

- maintenance of records in reasonable detail that accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of assets;
- reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS;
- receipts and expenditures are only being made in accordance with authorizations of management and the Board of Directors; and
- reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of assets that could have a material effect on the condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, ICFR may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management, including the CEO and CFO, has evaluated the design of the Company's ICFR as of February 28, 2017 pursuant to the requirements of Multilateral Instrument 52-109. The Company has designed appropriate ICFR for the nature and size of the Company's business, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with IFRS except as noted herein.

There have been no changes in ICFR during the nine months ended February 28, 2017 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's ICFR.

Change in Accounting Policies

New accounting standards not yet effective

A number of new accounting standards, amendments to standards, and interpretations have been issued but not yet effective up the date of issuance of the Company's unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements. The Company intends to adopt these standards when they become effective. The Company has not yet determined the impact of these standards on its consolidated financial statements, but does not anticipate that the impact will be significant.

Share Capital

As of the date of this MD&A, the Company had 11,706,896 issued and outstanding common shares.

Trends

Management regularly monitors economic conditions and estimates their impact on the Company's operations and incorporates these estimates in both short-term operating and longer-term strategic decisions. During the nine months ended February 28, 2017, equity markets in Canada have showed very encouraging signs of improvement, with stock prices increasing significantly during this period. Strong equity markets is a favourable condition for completing a public merger or acquisition transaction of the type being sought by the Company, and the Company is encouraged by these developments after a long period of extremely difficult equity markets. Apart from these and the risk factors noted under the heading "Risks and Uncertainties", management is not aware of any other trends, commitments, events or uncertainties that would have a material effect on the Company's business, financial condition or results of operations.

Risks and Uncertainties

An investment in the securities of the Company is highly speculative and involves numerous and significant risks. Such investment should be undertaken only by investors whose financial resources are sufficient to enable them to assume these risks and who have no need for immediate liquidity in their investment. Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors that have affected, and which in the future are reasonably expected to affect, the Company and its financial position. In addition to other information set forth elsewhere in this MD&A, readers should carefully consider the risk factors included in the Annual Information Form for the year ended May 31, 2016 filed on SEDAR (www.sedar.com).

Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with counterparty's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and investment-grade short-term guaranteed investment certificates, which have been invested with the Company's banking institution, from which management believes the risk of loss to be minimal.

Accounts receivable consists of sales taxes receivable from government authorities in Canada and receivable from the sale of Viken Project. Accounts receivable are in good standing as of February 28, 2017. Management believes that the credit risk concentration with respect to financial instruments included in accounts receivable is minimal.

Liquidity Risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet liabilities as they come due. As at February 28, 2017, the Company had a cash and cash equivalents balance of $5,655,154 (May 31, 2016 - $5,688,800) to settle current liabilities of $28,273 (May 31, 2016 - $50,239). All of the Company's financial liabilities have contractual maturities of less than 30 days and are subject to normal trade terms. The Company believes it has sufficient funds to meet its liabilities when they become due.

Market Risk

Interest rate risk

The Company has cash balances and no interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by the Company's Canadian chartered bank. Management believes that the Company's exposure to interest rate risk is minimal.

Sensitivity analysis

As of February 28, 2017, the carrying and fair value amounts of the Company's financial instruments are approximately equivalent.

Based on management's knowledge and experience of the financial markets, the Company believes the following movements are "reasonably possible" over a nine months period:

(i) Cash and cash equivalents are subject to floating interest rates. As at February 28, 2017, if interest rates had decreased/increased by 1% with all other variables held constant, the loss for the nine months ended February 28, 2017 would have been approximately $42,000 higher/lower (nine months ended February 29, 2016 - $43,000 higher/lower) as a result of lower/higher interest income from cash and cash equivalents. Similarly, as at February 28, 2017, reported Shareholder's Equity would have been approximately $42,000 lower/higher (nine months ended February 29, 2016 - $43,000 lower/higher) as a result of lower/higher interest income from cash and cash equivalents due to a 1% decrease/increase in interest rates.

(ii) The Company does not hold significant balances in foreign currencies to give rise to exposure to foreign exchange risk.

Commitments

The Company's contractual obligations as at February 28, 2017 include:

Contractual Obligations	Total	Up to 1 year	1 - 3 years	4 - 5 years	After 5 years
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	$28,273	$28,273	$nil	$nil	$nil
Total	$28,273	$28,273	$nil	$nil	$nil

Litigation and Contingency

Edward Godin, the former president, CEO and a director of the Company commenced a proceeding against the Company in May 2013 in which he is seeking damages in the amount of $650,000. Following its ongoing investigation, the Company commenced a proceeding against Mr. Godin for approximately $3,000,000 for numerous breaches of his fiduciary duties owed to the Company. These actions are ongoing.

During the year ended May 31, 2014, the Company commenced a lawsuit against Iftikhar Malik in which the Company seeks the return of approximately $189,000 from him. The former CEO of the Company, Edward Godin, caused the Company to improperly make monthly payments, in an amount equal to Mr. Godin's salary, to Mr. Malik from approximately November 2011 until December 2012. Mr. Malik has filed his defence and counter-sued the Company for $300,000. The Company believes the claim is without merit and plans to vigorously defend its position.
